How does Orbis 's gender pay gap compare?

The mean gender pay gap for all employees and the whole economy (according to the 2021 Office for National Statistics (ONS) Annual Survey of Hours and Earnings (ASHE) figures) is 15.4%.

We can report that at Orbis Protect Ltd when comparing mean (average) hourly pay, women’s mean hourly pay is 1.7% higher than men’s.

In our organisation:

- women earn £1.04 for every £1 that men earn when comparing median hourly pay. Their median hourly pay is 4.3% higher than men's
- women earn £1.13 for every £1 that men earn when comparing median bonus pay. Their median bonus pay is 12.6% higher than men's
- When comparing mean (average) bonus pay, women's mean bonus pay is 16.1% higher than men's.

There has also been an increase in the proportion of women at Orbis who received a bonus in the 12 months up to April 2021 since our last report.

Orbis remains committed to the principle of equal opportunities and equal treatment for all employees, regardless of sex, race, religion or belief, age, marriage or civil partnership, pregnancy/maternity, sexual orientation, gender reassignment or disability. It has a clear policy of paying employees equally for the same or equivalent work, regardless of their sex (or any other characteristic set out above). We have well established policies confirming our commitment to equal opportunities to ensure that no employee is subjected to discrimination in the workplace.

I, Ben Howard, Chief Executive Officer, confirm that the information in this statement is accurate.
